and beyond

The Legacy Society makes it possible for the Northern Lieutenancy to respond quickly to the Latin Patriarchate's immediate needs.

Recent distributions from the Legacy Society include immediate humanitarian aid for Christians in the Holy Land, funds to supplement teachers' salaries, the Be'er Sheva Pilgrim gathering space, COVID-19 pandemic emergency funding, aid sent to the Beit Jela Seminary to fund spiritual formation for seminarians and staff, aid for refugees, and scholarships for students at Bethlehem University and the University of Madaba.

Members of the Legacy Society are remembered at 12 Masses held throughout the year celebrated by our Ecclesiastical Master of Ceremonies.

The names of Legacy Society members, upon their approval, are published in the Annual Meeting Program.

Legacy Society

The Legacy Society of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, Northern Lieutenancy, was established in 2000 as a special way to:

- ◆ Support Christians in the Holy Land.
- ◆ Have a lasting effect in the Order's work in the Holy Land.

Since its inception, 338 members have contributed to create a fund balance of $2,260,449 as of June 30, 2024. Distributions from earnings in the Lieutenancy's Legacy Society are a vital source of support for projects in the Holy Land.

Distributions must comply with the Investment Policy* and are made by the Investment Committee and at the direction of the Lieutenant.

*A copy of the Investment Policy is available upon request.

How the Society Works

Knights and Dames of the Order can either make a provision in their estate plans or make current gifts to the Legacy Society Fund.

Donors can specify if their estate gifts are to be used immediately or added to the principal funds.

To avoid competing with annual donations to the Order for support of the Holy Land, the recommended minimum amount for a gift to the Legacy Society is $2,500.

*"The Legacy Society is an excellent way to support the immediate needs of the Christians in the Holy Land."
Shawn T. Cleary, KGCHS
Lieutenant, Northern Lieutenancy*
